When you set up your profile in your dashboard (backoffice), you'll download the different pay apps from your Inviter and set up your account. Follow the prompts to verify your identity, type in your username apps and send your $20 token of appreciation gift to your respective inviter.

Are there any technical skills required?

YES!! You must be able to follow simple, easy and basic instructions (very important). Your inviter will help guide you through each step so be patient and don't jump ahead. Yes, if you feel like someone deserves a monetary gift for going above and beyond, you can send him/her a gift of recognition so long as you're sending it without expecting anything in return; up to the annual limit of $19,000 and others can send you a monetary gift too.

How do I find people to invite?

You can post ads on internet sites like Craigslist, Facebook friends, share with friends and family from your phone contact list, post flyers: the possibilities are endless. And actually, these people will find you, just like how you found your inviter. You'll share your inviter code only to those who request it, so you're not soliciting anyone. You cannot publicly distribute your inviter code or the Join Link passcode. You are required to personally speak with each person and qualify them to make sure they are a good fit for the community. If you advertise your codes or the Join Link passcode, you'll be removed from the community. This is a private peer-to-peer support community. You must be invited from a current, active participant.

Free access to all the texts, scripts, ads and everything you need so you don't have to reinvent the wheel.
